

Insignia: Rogue Squadron

Rogue Squadron's colorful insignia is almost as famous as the men and women who serve beneath Wedge Antilles, the squadron's Wing Commander. Like all unit insignias, the design is purely informal, but the colorful logo appears almost everywhere within the quarters of the squadron. Pilots often have insignia patches sewn into their jackets and other personal clothing -- to wear the insignia of Rogue Squadron is to wear a badge of honor. Even their X-wings bear the special marks.

The insignia's basis, like many of the New Republic seals, is the prominent and recognizable symbol of the Alliance. The blue shield of the Alliance forms the center of a blazing red star. The blue shield represents the ideals and commitments of the original Alliance to Restore the Republic. The blazing red star signifies the speed and far-reaching strength of Rogue Squadron, a starfighter wing that will go wherever it is needed to protect the Republic from its enemies.

The red star has twelve points radiating out from the blue shield. Each point is a blazing red vapor trail ending in a stylized X-wing starfighter -- one for each member of Rogue Squadron.
